

NCC PURCHASE POLICY

“By adopting a good business-like attitude and paying attention to our client's expectations and the conditions existing in local markets, NCC will, by means of its purchasing activities, make a forceful contribution to the positive development of the group's profits.”

- By "a good business-like attitude", we mean skills, an overall view and business relations that are characterised by our values of honesty, respect and trust.
- We shall, in collaboration with our suppliers, offer our clients products and services that show consideration for both people and the environment.
- We shall have an influence on the entire value chain for products and services by means of a structured review of the products and services we offer.
- We shall exploit NCC's collective strength, thereby creating and utilising co-ordination effects in our purchasing activity in order to achieve the lowest overall cost.
- We shall maintain and create new long-term relations with carefully selected suppliers who are prepared to accept responsibility and who share our values. We shall, by means of collaboration, develop cost-effective products and methods.

Solna november 2007

Olle Ehrlén
CEO and Group Director NCC AB